

6th Symposium of the
Münster Graduate School of Evolution

in collaboration with the Center for Philosophy of Science

“Between Science and Philosophy of Science”

Wednesday, 22nd March 2017

13.15
Welcome address by Joachim Kurtz & François Pellet

13.30
Welcome address by Johannes Wessels,
Rector of the WWU

13.45
Keynote lecture Philippe Huneman
CNRS / Paris I Sorbonne, FR
Rethinking the macroevolutionary contingency: Gould meets Mandelbrot?

14.45
Jürgen Schmitz
Institute of Experimental Pathology, WWU
From nets to trees and back again

15.15
Hans Kerp
Institute of Geology and Palaeontology, WWU
Species and phylogenetic concepts in palaeontology

Public lectures
Lecture hall HHü, Hüfferstr. 1

Thursday, 23rd March 2017

9.15
Rasmus Grønfeldt Winther Keynote lecture
UC Santa Cruz, US
The dangers of anti-pluralism in evolutionary biology

10.15
Mario Rosario Guarracino
ICAR-CNR, IT
Mathematical models of supervised learning and their application to biological data

13.30
Marie I. Kaiser Keynote lecture
University of Bielefeld, DE
Normativity in the philosophy of science