

Thursday, 2 November

9.00–9.15 KARL ENENKEL/JAN DE JONG,
Welcome/Introduction

9.15–10.00 JUSTIN STAGL (Salzburg), *Ars
apodemica* and Socio-Cultural Research

10.00–10.45 KARL ENENKEL (Münster), Early Latin Artes Apodemicae, Methodi and Tabellae peregrinandi

10.45–11.15 coffee break

11.15–12.00 ROBERT SEIDEL (Frankfurt), Debating the Use of Academic Travels. Early Modern Disputations De arte peregrinandi

12.00–12.45 J.S. FREEDMAN, The Role of Travel in the Context of the Central European Arts and Philosophy Curriculum, c. 1600

12.45–14.15 lunch break

14.15–15.00 JAN PAPY (Leuven), Justus Lipsius on Traveling to Italy: From a Humanist Letter-Essay to an Oration and a Political Guidebook

15.00–15.45 SIEF KEMPER (Groningen), The Influence of Lipsius's Letter to Philippe de Lannoy

15.45–16.00 tea/coffee break

16.00–16.45 THOMAS HAYE (Göttingen), Travel for the Sake of Medical Education

16.45–17.30 SAMUEL KARP (Hamburg), Jesuit *Ars
Apodemica* in Daniel Papebroch's Travel Diary (1660)

17.30–18.15 BERND ROLING (FU Berlin), Through Siberia with Linné: Swedish Explorers in Russia and Their Use of Linné's Instructio

Friday, 3 November

9.15–10.00 GABOR GELLÉRI (Aberystwyth University), Handbooks for the Courtier and for the Traveller: Intersections of Two Forms of Advice Literature

10.00–10.45 EVA KREMS (Münster), Art and the (Princely) Spectator: Travel Accounts in the 17th and 18th Century

10.45–11.15 coffee break

11.15–12.00 JAN DE JONG (Groningen), Reading as a Substitute for Making Real Journeys. Nathan Chytraeus's Variorum in Europa itinerum deliciae

12.00–12.45 HARALD HENDRIX (KNIR), The Rise of a Proto-touristic Infrastructure in the Late 16th Century: The Case of Naples

12.45–14.15 lunch break

14.15–15.00 KERSTIN MARIA PAHL (King's College London), Joint Adventures. Company and 'Companions' in English Travelling Culture of the Late 17th and 18th Centuries

15.15–16.00 JOHANNA LUGGIN (Innsbruck), Thomas Hobbes's Journey Poem De mirabilibus Pecci
(1627): A Travel Guide for Early English
Domestic Tourism

16.00–16.45 ELISABETH SCHWAB (Göttingen), The Organisation of Antiquarian Knowledge in Early Latin Treatises on Rome

16.45–17.00 tea/coffee break

17.00–17.45 MARC LAUREYS (Bonn), Classical Tradition and Contemporary Experience in Hugo Favolius's Hodoeporicon Byzantinum
(1563)

17.45–18.30 JUSTINA SPENCER (Oxford), French
Artist-Travelers in the Ottoman Empire:
Diplomacy and Fashion in Seventeenth-Century Voyages

organization:

Prof. Dr. Karl A.E. Enenkel
WWU Münster
Seminar für Lateinische Philologie des Mittelalters und der Neuzeit kenen_01@uni-muenster.de

Dr. Jan L. de Jong
RU Groningen
Department of History of Art and Architecture
j.l.de.jong@rug.nl

coordination:

Dr. Christian Peters, M.Ed.

Seminar für Lateinische Philologie des
Mittelalters und der Neuzeit
Bogenstr. 15/16
48143 Münster
+49 251 8324130
artesanodemicae2017@wwu.de

conference venue (*):

JO 101|Johannisstr. 4| 48143 Münster

please register until 15 October 2017:
artesanodemicae2017@wwu.de

Artes Apodemicae
and Early Modern Traveling Culture 1400-1700
International Conference
Münster, 2-3 November 2017