

Topics for BA- and MA-theses in the department of Sport Psychology

Dear students,

please find the most recent calls for theses in the attached tables. If you are interested in one of the topics please contact the responsible research in his / her consultation hour (cf. homepage).

To choose other topics other topics is possible. Please ask the members of the department for further advice. Please consider that new topics are also announced on the personal webpages of the team members.

You can find further information regarding degree theses (organization, statistics support, requirements) on our homepage.

Further, you can find topics for thesis at the doors for single team members.

We wish you success with your degree theses, the team of the department of sport psychology

Supervisor	Topics
Prof. Dr. Bernd Strauß	Expertise (e.g. perception) Social Psychology (e.g. home advantage) Diagnostics and methodological issues
Prof. Dr. Maike Tietjens	Motor performance Self-concept Motivation
Dr. Dennis Dreiskämper	Physical Self-Concept Physical activity of children Motor development Trust / Legitimacy Doping and substance abuse
Dr. Barbara Halberschmidt	Social cognitions (e.g. stereotypes in sport)
Dr. Linda Schuecker	Focus of attention (e.g., with spiroometry) Cognitive and physical performance
Dr. Till Utesch	Motor, cognitive and psycho-social development Motor assessments Sport psychology in team sports (e.g., soccer referees, small sided games) (fitness-) apps, physical activity and well-being
Meike Kolb	Doping in sports
Stijn Mentzel	Attention and perception
Sydney Querfurth	Digital media, trust and communication in coach-athlete relationship
Charlotte Rau	Team cognition (and team coordination)