

The regularity problem for nonlocal operators generating jump processes

MORITZ KASSMANN

Abstract:

We review recent results on integro-differential operators generating Levy-type processes. In recent years there has been much research in this direction. We focus on regularity estimates of harmonic functions and give details for a limit case.