KÄTE HAMBURGER KOLLEG

The Käte Hamburger Kolleg “Einheit und Vielfalt im Recht | Legal Unity and Pluralism” (EViR) at the University of Münster (WWU) has been funded by the Federal Ministry of Education and Research (BMBF) since 2021. Fellows from all over the world, together with scholars from Münster, examine the dynamic tension between legal unity and pluralism from antiquity to the present. This is the first attempt to systematically investigate the phenomenon in its entire historical depth and across disciplinary boundaries. In addition to (legal) history, many other disciplines such as ethnology and sociology, as well as literature and religious studies, are involved in the Kolleg.

CONCEPT

Assembling a diverse group of international experts in the fields of Ancient Greek History and the History of Law in Antiquity, the symposium explores new concepts and perspectives on ancient Greek law from Archaic to Hellenistic times. The recent upsurge of scholarship on local encodings of Greek culture, combined with an unyielding research interest in the interconnection of local agencies and their merging into frames of unity, makes this a timely endeavor.
Exciting new discoveries of legal texts further advance, and sometimes complicate, the understanding. The Käte Hamburger Kolleg „Legal Unity and Pluralism“ offers an ideal intellectual space for the discussion of the dynamic tension between local legal diversity and unity in ancient Greece.
