

Individualisation Symposium

9th April 2024

ZiF – Centre for Interdisciplinary Research,
Bielefeld

9:30	Registration & Coffee	13:40	No love affair. Historical perspectives on the individualization theorem Jens Elberfeld, Martin Luther University Halle-Wittenberg
10:15	Opening by the Convenors Jürgen Gadau, Speaker of InChangE & Director of the JICE	14:25	Personality: One word, several meanings, much confusion Aparajitha Ramesh, University of Bern
10:30	What can we learn from studying curiosity in animals? Social and environmental impacts on intrinsic motivation Sofia Forss, University of Zurich	14:45	Coffee
11:15	The evolution and development of sensitive periods in changing environments Nicole Walasek, University of Amsterdam	15:15	Fairly individualized allocations under risk Niels Boissonnet, InChangE
12:00	Lunch	15:35	Psychosomatics as individualization: Perspectives from the sociology of science Carolin Mezes, InChangE
13:00	Linked Lives: An interdisciplinary approach to individuality in social behavior Niclas Kuper, InChangE	15:55	Individual differences and interventions in human performance across the lifespan Claudia Voelcker-Rehage, University of Münster
13:20	Imagining individual life histories Ozan Altan Altinok, Leibniz University of Hannover	16:45	Closing Remarks
		17:00	Get-together & Dinner

