

INDIVIDUALISATION SYMPOSIUM 2025

Integrating Human and Animal Research

25
March 2025

ZiF – Centre for Interdisciplinary
Research, Bielefeld

9:30 Registration & Coffee

10:00 Opening by the Conveners

10:30 »The moody animal: The ancient origins of 'ups and downs'«
Barbara Natterson-Horowitz
Harvard University & UCLA

11:30 »From birds to words: A comparative approach to the development of communication«
Michael H. Goldstein
Cornell University

12:30 Lunch

13:45 »Challenges and caveats of integrating human and animal research«
Panel Discussion

14:30 »On the evolutionary foundations of intra-family resource sharing«
Ingela Alger
Toulouse School of Economics

15:30 Coffee

16:00 »Evaluating the existence and magnitude of indirect genetic effects using a meta-analytical approach«
Maria Moiron
Bielefeld University

16:30 »Stable individual differences in object play as a pathway to tool use emergence in a non-human primate species«
Camilla Cenni
University of Mannheim

17:00 »What makes us so different? Individualisation processes in the life course from a behavioural-genetic perspective«
Bastian Mönkediek
Bielefeld University

17:30 JICE General Assembly

18:00 Get-together & Dinner

More information
and registration:
<http://symposium.jice.info>