

Elsemieke Daalder | Curriculum vitae (07.2025)

Professional appointments

2023-pres.	Professor of Roman law, European legal history, European private law and comparative law, Institute for Legal History, Faculty of Law, University of Münster
2023-pres.	Affiliated researcher, Department of Constitutional and Administrative Law, Leiden Law School, Leiden University
2022-2023	Associate Professor, Department of Legal History, Leiden Law School, Leiden University
2018-2022	Assistant Professor, Department of Legal History, Leiden Law School, Leiden University
2017-2018	Lecturer, Department of Legal History, Leiden Law School, Leiden University
2012-2017	PhD Candidate, Department of Legal History, Leiden Law School, Leiden University Thesis title: De rechtspraakverzamelingen van Julius Paulus. Recht en rechtvaardigheid in de rechterlijke uitspraken van Septimius Severus. Supervisors: Prof. W.J. Zwalve & Prof. E. Koops
2008-2012	Student assistant & junior lecturer, Department of Legal History, Leiden Law School, Leiden University

Academic education

2012-2018	PhD in law (cum laude) Leiden University; Leiden Law School
2011-2012	Master of Laws, specialization Dutch private law (cum laude) Leiden University; Leiden Law School
2011-2012	Talent programme, Meijers Graduate School Leiden University; Leiden Law School
2009-2012	Master of Classics (cum laude) Leiden University; Faculty of Humanities
2007-2011	Bachelor of Laws Leiden University, Leiden Law School
2005-2009	Bachelor of Classics Leiden University, Faculty of Humanities

Grants and awards

2024	‘Lehre in Englisch’ grant, awarded by the International Office of Münster University.
2023	NEH Collaborative Research Grant (Convening) - Co-lead, with Prof Serena Connolly and Dr Matthijs Wibier; lead: Dr Zachary Herz.
2020	J.C. Ruigrok prize 2020, awarded by the Royal Holland Society of Sciences and Humanities (KHMW) to the best legal dissertation defended in the last four years.
2019	‘Premio della Corte costituzionale’ / major international legal historical prize, awarded by the Consorzio Interuniversitario Gérard Boulvert every three years to a legal historical monograph written by a young researcher and published in Europe.
2019	Ted Meijer prize 2019 for the best dissertation of 2018 within the field of Italian studies (in particular with a focus on Rome), awarded by the Royal Dutch Institute in Rome (KNIR).
2017	Leiden Law School teaching award 2017.
2016	‘VBR Publicatieprijs 2015’ / award for the best article of 2015, awarded by the Dutch Society for Private Law for the article E.S. Daalder & R. de Graaff, ‘Rome, Luxemburg, Den Haag: de prejudiciële procedure als rechtsvormend instrument’ (transl.: Rome, Luxemburg, The Hague: the role of the preliminary reference procedure in the development of the law), Ars Aequi 2015-4, p. 324-332.
2014	Visiting research fellowship, Royal Dutch Institute in Rome (KNIR).
2012	Dutch Research Council (NWO) Onderzoekstalent scholarship – three-year research grant.

Positions of trust and memberships

2025-pres.	‘Vertrauensdozentin’ of the Studienstiftung des deutschen Volkes
2025-pres.	Board member of Aemilius Papinianus Stichting, a foundation which finances legal historical activities in the Netherlands
2024- pres.	Associated researcher of the Käte Hamburger Kolleg ‘Einheit & Vielfalt im Recht’, University of Münster
2023-pres.	Member of the curatorium of the Zentrum für Niederlande-Studien, Münster
2020-pres.	Leading member of the collaborative digital humanities project ‘EPISTULAE: the Correspondence of the Roman Emperors’ (with Prof Serena Connolly, Dr Zachary Herz and Dr Matthijs Wibier)
2019-pres.	Board member (secretary) of the Stichting Philologisch Studiefonds, a fund providing travel grants for young academics in the field of classical studies
2012-pres.	Associated member of OIKOS, the Dutch National Research School in Classical Studies