

Information Sheet on Plagiarism

The literal or paraphrased use of texts or text passages without proper citation and indication of the source constitutes plagiarism. This applies even to individual phrases. Such practices violate the principles of academic work, the examination regulations, and copyright law.

Plagiarism will under no circumstances be tolerated. All available legal measures will be fully pursued. This includes the fact that the respective term paper will automatically be graded as failed (5.0). Furthermore, information regarding the plagiarism will be forwarded to the Examination Board. The Board may revoke the right to retake the exam and declare the entire examination as permanently failed (§ 8.3 MPO 1997; § 17 of the General Regulations for Bachelor Examinations dated 22.01.2004).

Term papers are checked using professional software for copied passages.

Please be aware that even a single attempt at plagiarism can jeopardize your entire academic success.
