

3rd WEBINAR STF -
MÜNSTER UNIVERSITY:
DIGITAL
CONSTITUTIONALISM
AND DEMOCRACY

June 3rd
11am (BRT) 4pm (CET)

Broadcast in English and Portuguese
on the Youtube channel of STF

SCHEDULE

Professor ALEXANDRE FREIRE

---

Keynote Speaker - 4pm to 4:20pm (CET) - 20 minutes

PhD in Law at Pontifícia Universidade Católica of São Paulo. Master in Law at Universidade Federal do Paraná. Secretary of Advanced Studies, Research and Information Management of the Federal Supreme Court of Brazil, Counselor of the National Council for Innovation of the Judiciary of the CNJ. Member of the executive committee of the CNJ's National Network of Judicial Cooperation. Member of the CNJ's Working Group to improve the system of judicial precedents. Member of the assisting group to the Federal Supreme Court internal regulations commission. Former Deputy Assistant Chief of Legal Affairs of the Presidency of the Republic. Editor in Chief of the Suprema - Constitutional Law Journal of the Federal Supreme Court. Professor at Instituto Brasileiro de Direito Público and Pontifícia Universidade Católica of Rio de Janeiro.

Professor FRANK ZIMMERMANN

---

Lecturer Panel 1 - 4:20pm to 4:40pm (CET) - 20 minutes

Professor of criminal law and procedure, European and international criminal law as well as challenges of digitalization for criminal law at the University of Münster. His main fields of research include European and international cooperation in criminal matters, interactions of criminal law and the political system, as well as the role of criminal law in the digital age.

Professor HELOISA ESTELLITA

---

Debater Panel 1 - 4:40pm to 4:55pm (CET) - 15 minutes

Post-doctoral studies in Germany at Ludwig-Maximilians Universität of Munich and Augsburg Universität. Doctorate in Criminal Law at Universidade de São Paulo, Master of Law at Universidade Estadual Paulista Júlio de Mesquita Filho - UNESP and Bachelor of Law at Universidade de Ribeirão Preto. She was a justice's law clerck at the Federal Supreme Court of Brazil. Professor of Law at Fundação Getúlio Vargas (SP).

Professor JOSÉ CARVALHO FILHO

---

Lecturer Panel 2 - 4:55pm to 5:15pm (CET) - 20 minutes

PhD in Constitutional Law at Aix-Marseille Université (France), with post-doctoral internship at the University of Salamanca (Spain). Professor of Constitutional Law at Instituto Brasiliense de Direito Público (IDP). Researcher at the Judicial Research Coordination at the Secretary of Advanced Studies, Research and Information Management of the Federal Supreme Court of Brazil (COPJ)/SAE/STF).

Professor NORA MARKARD

---

Debater Panel 2 - 5:15pm to 5:30pm (CET) - 15 minutes

Professor for Public Law and Human Rights at the University of Münster, PhD in law from Humboldt University of Berlin and MA International Peace & Security, from King's College, London. Her main areas of specialization are Constitutional Law, Human Rights Law, International Refugee Law, and Law and Gender. She is also vice president of the Gesellschaft für Freiheitsrechte (GFF), an NGO that specializes in strategic litigation on constitutional rights.

3rd WEBINAR STF - MÜNSTER UNIVERSITY: DIGITAL CONSTITUTIONALISM AND DEMOCRACY

4pm to 4:20pm (CET) 20 minutes	Keynote Speaker	Professor Alexandre Freire
4:20pm to 4:40pm (CET) 20 minutes	Lecture Panel 1	Professor Frank Zimmermann
4:40pm to 4:55pm (CET) 15 minutes	Debate Panel 1	Professor Heloisa Estellita
4:55pm to 5:15pm (CET) 20 minutes	Lecture Panel 2	Professor José Carvalho Filho
5:15pm to 5:30pm (CET) 15 minutes	Debate Panel 2	Professor Nora Markard
5:30pm to 5:35pm (CET) 5 minutes	Closing Speech	Professor Alexandre Freire

