

COVID-19 and its impacts on fundamental rights

STF & WWU Webinar Series: November 12, 2021 (15-16:30 MEZ)

About the Webinar Series

The WWU Institute for International and Comparative Public Law is organizing a webinar series with the Brazilian Supremo Tribunal Federal (STF). The webinar will shed light on the insights into the interpretation of fundamental rights and adjudication practice of the STF.

On November 12, 2021, the discussants will deal with COVID-19 and its impacts on fundamental rights.

Programme

Mensagem de abertura/ Opening statement (15:05-15:10)

- Luiz FUX (President of the STF)

Introdução/ Introduction (15:00-15:05)

- Matthias CASPER (Dean of the Faculty of Law, WWU)

Keynote (15:10-15:25)

- Gilmar MENDES (Justice of the STF)

Palestrante Painel 1/ Speaker Panel 1 (15:25-15:40)

- Vera KARAM DE CHUERI (Professor at the Federal University of Paraná (UFPR))

Debatedor Painel 1/ Debater Panel 1 (15:40-15:55)

- Niels PETERSEN (Professor at the Faculty of Law, WWU)

Palestrante Painel 2/ Speaker Panel 2 (15:55-16:10)

- Oliver LEPSIUS (Professor at the Faculty of Law, WWU)

Debatedor Painel 2/ Debater Panel 2 (16:10-16:25)

- Ingo Wolfgang SARLET (Professor and Coordinator of the Postgraduate Program in Law at the Law School of the Catholic University of Rio Grande do Sul (PUCRS))

Encerramento/ Closing (16:25-16:30)

- Niels PETERSEN

Registration

Please register for the webinar at <http://go.wwu.de/f95go>.

Login information for ZOOM will be send to your registration email address shortly before the beginning of the webinar.

This event is supported by the WWU Brazil Centre. (<https://www.uni-muenster.de/Brasilienzentrum/en/>)

