AFROEUROPEANS 2015

BLACK CULTURES AND IDENTITIES IN EUROPE
CULTURAS E IDENTIDADES NEGRAS EN EUROPA
CULTURES ET IDENTITÉS NOIRS EN EUROPE

From 16-19 September 2015, the English Seminar and the Chair of English, Postcolonial and Media Studies are hosting the fifth biennial AfroEuropean Studies Network Conference. This interdisciplinary conference offers papers on literature, history, music, art, politics, immigration, and youth culture. The programme also features readings, screenings, and the roundtable: 'Why is my professor not black?' AfroEuropeans V brings together scholars, activists, and artists from across Europe, Africa, and the Americas, to engage with AfroEuropean cultures and identities.
