

Praktikum für Lehramtsstudierende in Irland

Greenlanes National School (GNS) in cooperation with the Centre for Teacher Education (Zentrum für Lehrerbildung) of University of Münster offers teacher students the possibility to do a school placement. Greenlanes National School is situated in Clontarf, a coastal suburb of Ireland's capital, Dublin. The school is a Church of Ireland co-educational primary school under the patronage of the Archbishop of Dublin. GNS caters for 300 pupils from 4 years old to 13 years old.

GNS is fully committed to the principle of inclusion and the good practice which makes it possible. Their policy aims to enable children with Special Education Needs and children whose first language is not English, to become fully integrated members of the school community. Another key feature is IT: Each classroom at GNS is equipped with a computer and interactive whiteboard, there is a class set of iPads and there are also multiple laptops available for use. The school also has a sports field that teachers use to teach Physical Education and for sports training. More information about the school can be found here: <http://www.greenlanes.ie/index.php>

At GNS you will support the teaching and learning, can plan lessons in co-operation with the teacher and can help and assist where needed. The working day is from 8 am to 2 pm. You can apply year-round for a work placement at any time during the academic year between September and June. Internships have a minimum of 6 weeks.
