

Invitation

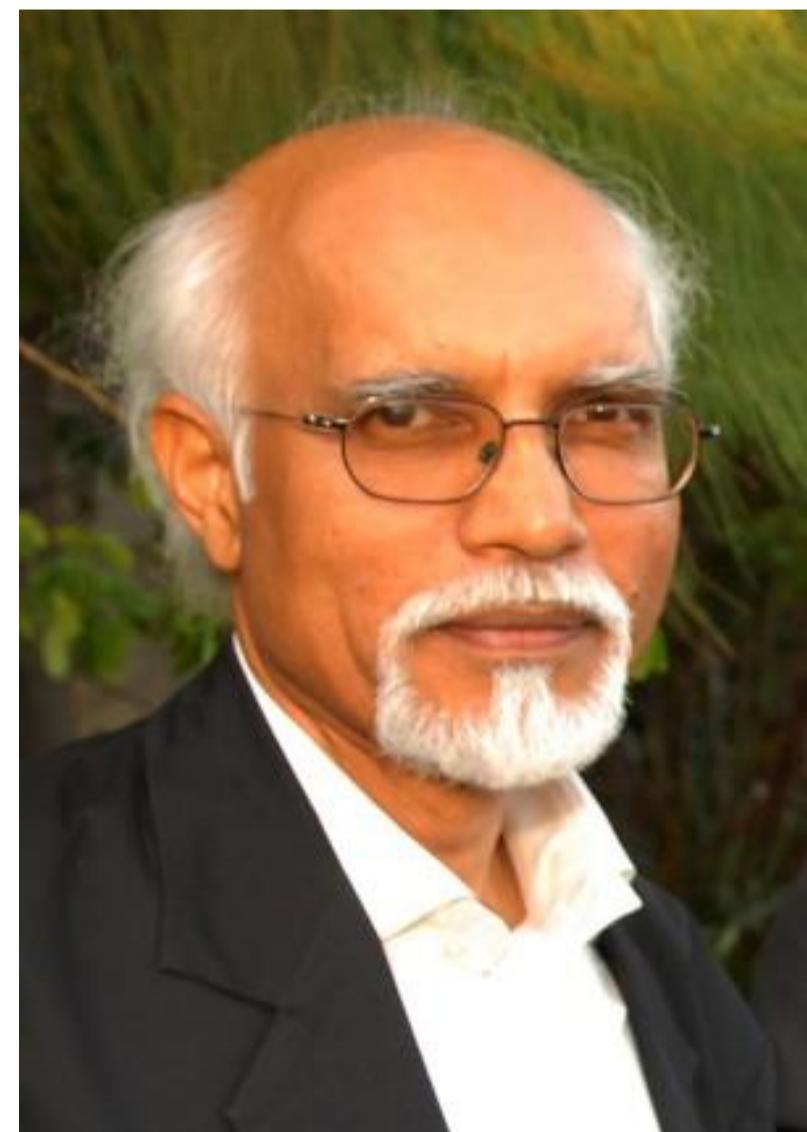

Prof. Vijay Mishra(Perth)

Tuesday 16 June, 2015

6pm (c.t.)in Room ES 131

Manuscripts in an Archive: Unpublished Rushdie Novels

Professor Vijay Mishra holds the Chair of English Literature at Murdoch University, Perth. Previously, he taught at the University of Alberta and held visiting fellowships at Oxford, the University of Wales, the University of California, and Tübingen, to name but a few. He has published widely on postcolonial literature, diaspora, as well as Gothic literature. His most influential publications include Dark Side of the Dream: Australian Literature and the Postcolonial Mind, The Gothic Sublime, The Literature of the Indian Diaspora: Theorizing the Diasporic Imaginary, and What Was Multiculturalism?

Prof. Dr. Klaus Stierstorfer
English Department | Chair of British Studies