

Stay Abroad on Nias, Indonesia

The village HilimaenamöLö is located on Nias, one of the many islands of Indonesia. This is where the Villa Warna Warni-Project was started in 2011. Within the scope of this project, a small children's home was built to offer children and teenagers of Nias a better life and access to education.

We are looking for English students as volunteers for six weeks starting either 01/03 or 01/10 each year. As a volunteer, you'll teach English, take care of children and help with chores!

What do we offer?

- support with organization of your travels
- personal contact on Nias
- bed, board and scooter for €10 a day
- certificate for volunteering
- can count as credit for Berufsfeldpraktikum

Interested?

YouTube-video

Project website

contact Jun.-Prof. Dr. Julia Reckermann
(julia.reckermann@uni-muenster.de)

Your responsibilities

- travel documents, visa and flight
- bed, board and scooter for €10 a day
- insurance and vaccinations
- open-mindedness and willingness to integrate into a different culture and lifestyle
- backpack with items useful for your stay, e.g. drawing pens, card games, songs, etc.