Information for Master-Students Social Anthropology – Measures related to the spread of the Coronavirus taken by the Institut für Ethnologie at WWU

The Ministry of Culture and Science (MKW) of North Rhine-Westphalia has informed the rectorate of WWU that the start of the summer semester has been postponed until 20th April 2020. The teaching schedule at the WWU will not commence until that time.

- Excursion are cancelled until further notice.
- Orientation week events will not take place this semester – i.e. neither before nor after 20 April 2020.
- Pentecostal Vacation (3-5. June) is cancelled

The following measures are taken by the Institute:

In order to allow you to proceed with your studies as undisturbed as possible lecturers work on providing online courses on Learnweb

- Please check the institute's homepage and/or the electronic lecture schedule commentaries if your courses are on Learnweb; if so, enrol
- The library and the office remain closed until 20th April
- Office hours of professors and lecturers will be conducted by phone or skype; timings will be provided on the institute's website
- Please submit your term-papers by email, via Learnweb or by snail mail

- If you seek writing-support from Yassin Gaber, please contact him by email for further information
- Oral examinations / viva, conclusion of Module 8 will not take place before April 20th
- Students who are currently on exchange programs can contact the International Office if they have any enquiries.
- Fieldwork projects must be postponed, please consult with your supervisor
- See the website Basic protective measures against the new corona virus
