

Call for proposals – Student exchange scholarships for 2017

The Institute of Ethnology established a partnership with the Department of Social Anthropology at Rhodes University in Grahamstown/South Africa (<https://www.ru.ac.za/anthropology/>). Thanks to DAAD-funding we are able to send 2 BA and 2 MA students – irrespective of their citizenship – to the Eastern Cape for studying there one or two terms.

Scholarship includes:

Study fees, travel expenses and a monthly rate to cover the living expenses in South Africa, on campus accommodation in Grahamstown.

Conditions

Minimum average grade according to your transcript of records (or: “Studienbuch”) is 2,3. BA students can apply from the 3rd semester onwards, MA students from the 1st semester onwards, resp. after 2 years of studying anthropology or a cognate discipline. Required are English skills on the level of C1 (resp. a score of 7 in an IELTS), an original proposal of about 3 pages and a letter of motivation. This will be forwarded to the exchange partners in Grahamstown. Willingness to learn isiXhosa during your stay there is conditional.

Deadline for the proposals:

15th August 2016

Send your proposals to Prof. Helene Basu, hbasu_01@uni-muenster.de and to Julia Koch, Julia.Koch@uni-muenster.de.

For further questions please contact Julia Koch during the office hours, appointments via the secretary – 0251 83 27311.
