

Declaration of Integrity

I hereby declare that this thesis on _____ _____ has been written independently by myself and without help, that no sources and aids other than those indicated have been used and that the sources and aids other than those specified and that the passages in the thesis which are the wording or meaning from other works - including electronic media - have been labelled as borrowed, stating the source.

I am aware that plagiarism is a form of deception that can be penalised in accordance with the examination regulations. I hereby declare that I am aware that the thesis will be stored in a database for the purpose of plagiarism control and of its comparison with other texts for the purpose of finding similarities. I hereby confirm that I have not submitted this thesis or parts thereof as an examination paper elsewhere.

I hereby confirm that I have critically examined the use of AI tools in academic practice (You can find the Institute's guidelines here: <https://www.uni-muenster.de/Ethnologie/en/studieren/downloads.html>). I am aware of the potential benefits as well as the risks, responsibilities, and ethical and legal implications associated with the use and application of AI tools. As a demonstration of my commitment to transparency and accountability, I have attached my personal statement on AI tool usage to this declaration.
