

The Anthropology
Cine Scene Club
invites

Ethnographic Short Films by Students of Münster

Screening with Q&A of the film makers

Moderation: Thomas
John, Berlin/ Münster

Fyal – Two Anthropol- ogists in Search of a Tribe

2021, dir. Ghassan Saleh and Joseph Puglisi, with Ole Oelkers, English.

When two anthropologists reunite after being separated for one year, a friendly
discussion leads them
down the rabbit hole
of what it means to be a hipster. They end up discovering the tribal temple known as FYAL.

Handpoke dir Neele Müller deals with social interaction around the process of tattooing.

Liminality

dir. Arjunraj Natarajan, with Felix.

A Work in Progress-
Cut: The first chapter of a long format film exploring the idea of
'being' and 'becoming' of a bodily identity chronicling the story of Felix, a Münster based non-binary man and his relation to the various forces that influence the sense of his bodily belonging.

Thursday,

25th Nov. 21, 6 pm

in person or on zoom:

Domplatz 23, room 23.205

3G rules and mask apply!

zoom id: 988 9834 9980
[https://www.zoom.us/j/988
98349980](https://www.zoom.us/j/98898349980)

(password by email to schleiter@uni-muenster.de)

In collaboration with Master in Social Anthropology, Institute of Ethnology, Münster

