

October 6th, 2022

from 15:30 Coffee
16:00-16:15 Welcome/Introduction

Opening paper:

17:20-18:20 Teresa Morgan (Yale University): “Characteristics, topics and innovation in Roman literary culture”
18:30-20:00 Dinner

October 7th, 2022

9:00-9:45 Bruno Bleckmann (Düsseldorf): “Innovation in Flavian panegyric historiography”
9:50-10:20 Nils Jäger (Göttingen): “Roman popular philosophy and literary innovation: The case of Seneca the younger”
10:20-10:45 Coffee break
10:45-11:30 Ulrike Egelhaaf-Gaiser (Göttingen): “Roman literature in the Flavian era – characteristics, developments and innovation”
12:00-13:30 Lunch
13:30-14:30 Walk-and-talk after lunch guided by Kasper Bro Larsen
14:45-15:30 Henriette van der Blom (University of Birmingham): “The Roman literary spirit of innovation”
15:35-16:05 Sigurvin Lárus Jónsson (Münster): “Flavian literary elements in Luke-Acts”
16:05-16:30 Coffee break
16:30-17:15 Sylvie Honigman (Tel Aviv): “Reading historical events as evidence of divine salvation”
17:25-18:25 Sean Adams (Glasgow): “Genre and innovation in early Judaism and Hellenistic Greek literature”
18:30-20:00 Dinner

October 8th, 2022

- 9:00-9:45 Lutz Doering (WWU Münster): “Nothing New Under the Sun? On Old and New in Apocalyptic Literature”
- 9:50-10:35 Oda Wischmeyer (Erlangen): “The relationship between religious and literary innovation in the Pauline letters”
- 10:35-10:45 Coffee break
- 10:45-11:30 Michael Tilly (Tübingen): Paul’s ‘Schriftauslegung’ in the context of ancient Judaism
- 11:35-12:05 Jacob P.B. Mortensen (Aarhus): “Mark and literary innovation?”
- 12:30-14:00 Lunch
- 14:00-14:30 Walk-and-talk after lunch guided by René Falkenberg
- 14:45-15:30 Susanne Luther (Göttingen): “Literary innovation in the Gospel of John”
- 15:35-16:05 Eve-Marie Becker: “Questions to and impulses for an early Christian literary history”
- 16:05-16:30 Coffee break
- 16:30-17:15 Christina Hoegen-Rohls (Münster): “The Pastorals as culmination of early Christian epistolary innovation”
- 17:25-18:25 Holger Strutwolf (Münster): “The literary innovation of New Testament literature: The evidence of manuscript traditions in early Christianity”
- 18:00-20:00 Festive dinner

October 9th, 2022

- 9:00-9:30 Francesca Minonne (Milan): “Innovation in the early patristic era: Grammar as hermeneutics”
- 9:35-10:20 Bronwen Neil (Macquarie): “Paul and the patristic age: Reception of Pauline literary innovation”
- 10:20-10:45 Coffee break
- 10:45-12:00 Panel discussion – Oda Wischmeyer moderator
- 12:00-14:00 Lunch and departure