

Aarhus – Münster – Oslo Trilateral Meeting

12–13 December 2022

Domus Theologica, Blindernveien 9, room U40

Monday 12 December

Session 1: Hugo Lundhaug presiding

11:45–12:00 Welcome

12:00–12:20 Eve-Marie Becker: “μαθητεύσατε πάντα τὰ ἔθνη (Mt 28:19): The relationship between discipleship and God’s people before and in Matthew”

12:30–12:50 Kasper Bro Larsen, “The Debut of Jesus in the Gospel of Mark”

13:00–13:20 Jacob P.B. Mortensen, “Computing Mark’s Genre”

13:30–13:50 Christoph Hammann: “Christ and the Vision of Power. Luke 1:26–38 in the Context of Greco-Roman Prophetic Narratives”

14:00–14:20 Marie Valgreen, “New PhD Project: Fictionality and Factuality in the New Testament Gospels.”

Coffee break

Session 2: Marianne Bjelland Kartzow presiding

14:40–15:00 René Falkenberg, “Salome in the New Testament and Beyond.”

15:10–15:30 Hugo Lundhaug, “A Multitude of Marys: The Interconnected Mary-Figures of Coptic Apocrypha.”

15:40–16:00 Samuel Cook, “Coptic Apocrypha in the Monastery of Saint Macarius: New perspectives on their production and distribution”

16:10–16:30 Gustaf Henriksson, “The woman as a savior? Tentative thoughts on 1 Timothy 2:11–15”

16:40–17:00 Vemund Blomkvist, “The Letter to the Laodiceans”

18:30 Dinner

Tuesday 13 December

Session 3: Ellen Aasland Reinertsen presiding

09:30–09:50 Erich B. Pracht, “The Polemics of Love: Paul's Construction of Reality in Galatians 5”

10:00–10:20 Linda Joelsson, “Resisting Desires for Conformity: Paul and Diversity in Galatians”

10:30–10:50 Florian Neitmann: “Lost and Found in Translation. 4 Ezra as a Source of Ethical Discourses and Traditions”

11:00–11:20 Florian Graz, “Apostolic Authors and Buried Books - Origins of the 'Finding Story' in Coptic Apocrypha”

11:30–11:50 Louise Heldgaard Bylund, “Do Judge a Book by its Cover: Contemporary Scandinavian Niche Bibles.”

11:50–12:00 Concluding remarks

12:00 Lunch