THE BOOK: This publication documents a study on ecclesiology carried out by the Department for Theology and Studies of the Lutheran World Federation. In addition to Lutheran contributors, the study has included voices from other denominations, and taken into account how they understand the church as being one holy, catholic and apostolic.

CONTRIBUTORS: Eve-Marie Becker (Denmark), Song-Mee Chung (Malaysia), Michel Grandjean (Switzerland), Minna Hietamäki (Finland), Eberhard Jüngel (Germany), Nelson Kilpp (Brazil), Samuel Ngun Ling (Myanmar), Dimitrios Moschos (Greece), Cheryl M. Peterson (USA), Johanna Rahner (Germany), Philipp Stoellger (Germany), and Yonas Yigezu (Ethiopia).

THE EDITOR: Hans-Peter Grosshans is professor for systematic theology at the University of Muenster, Germany.

The Lutheran World Federation is a global communion of churches in the Lutheran tradition. Founded in 1947 in Lund, Sweden, the LWF now has 140 member churches in 78 countries all over the world, representing 66.7 million Christians.
