

Human Freedom and Dignity: Innovative Humanities
Pécs 30thOct – 3rdNov 2019

Wednesday October, 30

17.45-18.00: Greetings György HEIDL (Diocese of Pécs) – Elena RAPETTI (UCSC Milano)

18.00-19.00: Public Opening Lecture: Jiří SCHNEIDER (Executive Director “The Aspen Institute Central Europe”)

19.30 Dinner

Thursday October, 31

9.00- 12.00 Discussion panel

Peter MARTENS (St. Louis University), Chair

Participants: Anders-Christian JACOBSEN (Network Coordinator, Aarhus University), Jiří SCHNEIDER, Karla POLLMANN (University of Bristol), Ben RYAN (Head of Research at Theos), Sara CONTINI (University of Bristol), Valeria DESSY (Aarhus University)

- How to assert the relevance of the Arts and Humanities in a disruptive world
- What is “progress” in the Arts and Humanities
- Application and Commercialization in higher education – opportunities and limits
- How to organize successful inter- and multidisciplinary in challenge-led research clusters

12.00-13.00 Lunch

Presentations from ESRs I

14.00- 16.00 Morten KOCK MØLLER (Charles University Prague) - Ilaria SCARPONI (University of Bristol). Respondents Marco RIZZI (UCSC Milano) - Lorenzo PERRONE (Università di Bologna)

16.00-16.30 Coffee break

16.30-18.30 Sara CONTINI (University of Bristol) - Valeria DESSY (Aarhus University). Respondent Samuel FERNANDEZ (Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile)

19.30 Dinner

Friday November, 1

Presentations from ESRs II

9.00-10.00 Karen DONSKOV FELTER (WWU Münster). Respondent Anders BORRE GADEGAARD (Lutheran Church of Denmark)

10.00-11.00 Elisa BELLUCCI (MLU Halle-Wittenberg). Respondent Daniel CYRANKA (MLU Halle-Wittenberg)

11.00-11.30 Coffee break

11.30-12.30 Kristian BUNKENBORG (WWU Münster). Respondent Iben DAMGAARD (University of Copenhagen)

13.00 Lunch

Excursion: Guided tour of the Bishop Palace, Mosque of Pasha Qasim, Cella Septichora

19.30 Dinner

Saturday November, 2

Presentations from ESRs III

9.00-11.00 Giovanni TORTORIELLO (MLU Halle-Wittenberg) - Elisa ZOCCHI (WWU Münster). Respondent Thomas LEINKAUF (WWU Münster)

11.00-11.30 Coffee break

11.30-12.30 Johannes RENDERS (Aarhus University). Respondent Simon STJERNHOLM (University of Copenhagen)

13.00 Lunch

14.00-16.30 “Café Origéniste” organized by Karla POLLMANN (University of Bristol)

- Highlights and surprises in our academic investigations regarding the history of human freedom and dignity in Western civilization
- What is the impact of this interdisciplinary and reception-oriented approach to Origen (and to a lesser degree Augustine) on the discipline of theology and on our understanding of religion?
- Challenges and opportunities of the ITN for the ESRs regarding the combination of the academic and the non-academic component
- How can we build on the project results and can make them fruitful for further academic work and for further impact in non-academic contexts?

16.30-17.00 Coffee break

17.00-17.30 Alfons FÜRST (WWU Münster), Insights and new ideas from the project

17.30-18.00 Anders-Christian JACOBSEN (Network Coordinator), Closing remarks

19.30 A typical Hungarian soirée (wine tasting and dinner)