The Supervisory Relationship includes:

- The principal supervisor must be available for at least one personal consultation session with the doctoral student per semester. This meeting may not be substituted by a presentation in an advanced research seminar (Oberseminar) or colloquium for doctoral students. The results of these meetings are to be briefly summarised in writing.
- The doctoral student must submit a written report to the Doctoral Thesis Board at least once a year, describing the status and progress of the doctoral thesis. The doctoral student presents the progress of their doctoral thesis to the Doctoral Thesis Board in a meeting organised by the principal supervisor. This consultation meeting may take place digitally.
