Who cares for the planet?

Exploring Gender, Nature, and Global Crises

7-13 December 2026

Buchholz near Hamburg, Germany

Service Civil International
Deutscher Zweig e.V.

Bildung für utopischen Wandel e.V.

Co-funded by the European Union

Join us for the Erasmus+ Youth Exchange

Green travel, accommodation, and food are fully funded.

Interested? Apply and be part of a diverse learning space for climate justice, gender, and social change.

7-13 December 2026
Buchholz near Hamburg, Germany

SCI Service Civil International Deutscher Zweig e.V.

BuWa Bildung für utopischen Wandel e.V.

Co-funded by the European Union

Who is it for?

Young people aged 18–30 who are curious, engaged and interested in creating positive change.

Individuals enthusiastic about climate action, gender equality, social and environmental justice.

Committed to sustainable low-carbon green travel.

No previous knowledge or experience is required.

Able to communicate comfortably in English.

People who experience discrimination or underrepresented backgrounds are strongly encouraged to apply.

SCI Service Civil International Deutscher Zweig e.V.

BuWa Bildung für utopischen Wandel e.V.

Co-funded by the European Union

Project Content

1 Gender, Climate Justice & Intersectionality

Unequal responsibility, vulnerability, political representation, and queer realities in the climate crisis.

2 Historical Roots of Today's Crises

Including patriarchy, colonialism, environmental destruction, Indigenous perspectives, and feminist struggles.

3 Rethinking Nature

Relationships with nature, Rights of Nature, Queer Ecologists, and more-than-human perspectives.

4 Power, Movements & Activism

Including gendered power relations, exclusion in climate movements, and feminist and queer environmental movements worldwide.

5 Imagining Just Futures

Connecting climate, gender, and social justice.

SCI Service Civil International Deutscher Zweig e.V.

BuWa Bildung für utopischen Wandel e.V.

Co-funded by the European Union