

Curriculum vitae

Prof. Dr. Kai Sina

30.12.1981, Flensburg

University of Münster, German Department, Schlossplatz 34, 48143 Münster

ksina@uni-muenster.de

Current Position W2-Professor for Modern German and Comparative Literature with a Focus on Transatlantic Literary History
Area of Specialization Literary History from 1800 to the Present in an International Context
Areas of Competency Literature in the Process of Social Modernization, Literature in the Transatlantic Context, Intellectual History

Academic Employment

since 2020 Associate professor of German and Comparative Literature, German Department, Univ. of Münster 2017-2020 Interims Professor at the Universities of Göttingen and Jena
2015–2016 Visiting Scholar at the University of Chicago
2010–2020 Assistant Professor, German Department, Göttingen University

Education and degrees

2018 Habilitation, Faculty of Philosophy, University of Göttingen
2012 Dr. phil. in Modern German Literature, University of Göttingen
2007 Magister artium, University of Kiel

Functions / Awards / Grants

2022– Liaison lecturer of the German National Academic Foundation
2021– Member of the Collaborative Research Center 1385 'Law and Literature'
2020– Lichtenberg Professorship of the Volkswagen Foundation
2016 Research Award of the Fritz Behrens Foundation
2015–2016 Feodor Lynen Fellow of the Alexander von Humboldt Foundation
2011– Regular contributor to the Frankfurter Allgemeine Zeitung 2007–2010 Member of the Research Training Group 'Generational History', University of Göttingen

Comprehensive list of publications: <https://go.wwu.de/vdln6>