

ΕΠΙΧΩΡΙΟΣ

PAPYROLOGIE
Seminar für Alte Geschichte

Seminar für Alte Geschichte

 Universität
Münster

Organisation

Prof. Dr. Hans Beck, FRSC

Prof. Dr. Patrick Sänger

International Symposium Foreign Rule in Hellenistic Greece and Egypt. Local Contexts and Perspectives

October 22 to 24, 2025 in Münster

Wednesday, October 22

Stadthotel, Aegidiistraße 21

Arrival of participants, check-in at the Stadthotel

Studiobühne, Domplatz 23

- 18:15 Klaus Freitag (Aachen)
Ein „Indian Summer“ der griechischen Poleis im 2. Jh. v. Chr.?
Zu den Auswirkungen und Konsequenzen römischer
Fremdherrschaft in Griechenland

The presentation will be followed by a beginning-of-year party in the foyer of the Studiobühne, sponsored by the Department of Ancient History.

Thursday, October 23

JO 101, Johannisstraße 4

- 9:00 Welcome
- 9:30 Frank Daubner (Trier)
Local Administration under the Antigonids: Negotiating
Foreign Rule in Hellenistic Greece
- 10:10 Emma Aston (Reading)
Was Antigonid control of Thessaly really a xenocracy?
- Coffee break
- 11:30 Hans Beck (Münster)
Ptolemaic rule in Greece
- 12:10 Eliza Gettel (Villanova)
Translating Rome's Politeia as a Hellene: Greek Federalism
as Political Imaginary

Lunch break

Foto: © Hans Beck

- 15:00 Muriel Moser-Gerber (Münster)
How foreign was Roman rule in Greece?

- 15:40 Charikleia Armoni (Köln)
The Evolution of the Judicial System in Ptolemaic Egypt

Coffee break

- 16:50 Dan Dana (Paris)
The military domination of space by Ptolemies in Egypt

- 19:30 Dinner

Friday, October 24

JO 101, Johannisstraße 4

- 9:30 Niklot Lingnau (Münster)
Change and Continuity in Xenocratic Egypt The Strategos
as a Case Study Between Ptolemaic and Roman Ages
- 10:10 Bernhard Palme (Wien)
Occupying Power or Respected Guardians of Order? Roman
Soldiers in the Egyptian Chora
- Coffee break
- 11:20 Patrick Sängler (Münster)
Xenocracy in Late Antique Egypt? Some Considerations

End of Symposium, departure of participants

Foto: © Jastrow, Wikipedia