

Foto: Felipe Guaman Poma de Ayala. El primer nueva corónica y buen gobierno (1615/1616) (København, Det Kongelige Bibliotek, SKS 2332.47)

Universität
Münster

CENTRE FOR
EMPIRE STUDIES
(Post)Colonial Histories and
Global Entanglements

Registration:

ces@uni-muenster.de

Deadline: January 31, 2026

Contact:

University of Münster

Centre for Empire Studies

Domplatz 20-22 , 48153 Münster

E-Mail: Jonas Rommen ces@uni-muenster.de

Organisers:

Sarah Albiez-Wieck, Kirsten Becker, Hayley Roy,

Mario Graña Taborelli, Jonas Rommen

Venue: JO 101, Johannisstr. 1, 48143 Münster

Imperial Frontiers – Local and Global Entanglements

University of Münster,
February 9-10, 2026

Monday, February 9

Venue: JO 101, Johannisstr. 1, 48143 Münster

14:00 Welcome/ Workshop opening Panel I: Frontiers as Sites of Connection and Disconnection

14:15-15:15:
Chair: Philip Bockholt (CES/Münster)

Wolfram Drews (Münster/CES):
Imperial Frontiers between „Islam“ and „Christendom“
in Medieval Spain?

Jonathan Steuer (University of Freiburg):
Urban Frontiers and Empire: The East India Company in Madras, ca. 1650-1750

Q&A 14:55-15:15

15:15-15:30 Coffee Break

15:30-16:30:
Chair: Kirsten Kamphuis (CES/Münster)

Francis Navarro (Ateneo de Manila University):
The Manila Galleon as an Imperial Frontier

Erik de Lange (Utrecht University):
Those who roam: Ordering maritime mobility in imperial contact zones, 1799-1818

Q&A 16:10-16:30

16:30-16:45 Coffee Break

16:45-18:15:
Chair: Kirsten Becker (CES/Münster)

Alexander Samson (University College London):
(Im)mobility: Dialectics of Movement, Power, and Resistance

Mario Graña Taborelli (CES/University College London):
Love Letters in the Cordillera: the Construction of Stable
Chiriguana-Spanish Partnerships in the Frontier of Tomina in Charcas (Bolivia) at the End of the Sixteenth Century and the “Ghost” Archive

Evgeniya Prusskaya (University of Marburg):
In-Between Empires: The Caucasus in the long
19th Century

Q&A 17:45-18:15

18:15 End of Panels

19:00 Conference Dinner at Pinkus, Kreuzstr. 7

Tuesday, February 10

Panel II: Frontiers as Sites of Classification

9:30-10:30:
Chair: Sarah Albiez-Wieck (CES/Münster)

Guillermina Oliveto (Universidad de Buenos Aires):
“Frontier of war”. Political use of a classification about a space of diversity and connections. South Eastern border of the Spanish Empire in America

Markus Koller (Ruhr-Universität Bochum):
The Bojana/Buna River - an Imperial Frontier
of the Ottoman Empire in the 19th Century

Q&A 10:10-10:30

10:30-11:00 Coffee Break

11:00-12:00:
Chair: Johannes Jansen (CES/Münster)

Hayley Roy (CES/Emory University):
Nursing the Empire: Frontiers and Borders of Healthcare in German Southwest and East Africa

Sarah Ehlers (Forschungsinstitut für Wissenschaftsund Technikgeschichte, Deutsches Museum, München): Medical Borderlands. Sleeping Sickness control and border regimes in colonial Africa

Q&A 11:40-12:00

12:00-12:45 Final Discussion

12:45-14:00 Lunch on site

14:00-16:00 Internal Discussion with the International Office on Future Ways of Collaboration with the
Centre for Empire Studies

16:00 End of Workshop