The text on the page is not legible due to the quality of the scan. It appears to be a page from a document, but the content cannot be accurately transcribed.
The page contains text in a language that appears to be a mix of English and another script. The text is not clearly legible or translatable. It seems to discuss some form of scientific or technical content, possibly related to measurements or calculations, given the presence of numbers and what appears to be units of measurement.

The text starts with a heading or section name, "Measurability and Range," followed by a block of text that appears to be discussing specific values or data points, possibly related to temperature or other physical properties. The text includes a mix of numeric data and descriptive phrases, indicating a detailed analysis or report.

The overall context suggests a detailed scientific or technical report, although the specific content is not clearly discernible due to the quality and orientation of the image.
