

POSTCOLONIAL TRANSLOCATIONS

20th annual GNEL/ASNEL conference

Conference update

21-24 May 2009, University of Münster

Registration

Can speakers who have not yet registered for the conference please complete the online registration on www.gnel2009.de. This is a matter of minutes – but it allows us to plan for a smooth conference.

How long are the papers?

In order to save time for discussion and in the interest of the programme running on time, all speakers are kindly requested not to exceed twenty minutes for their presentations.

Notebooks

If you require a notebook PC for your presentation, could you please bring your own machine. Web access in the lecture theatres needs to be arranged beforehand: gnel2009@gmail.com

Programme update info

We've just uploaded a collection of abstracts onto the conference website. A list of thematic panels, containing speakers and their titles, is also online. The full programme will become available before the conference.

ASNEL Travel Bursary

We are pleased to announce that we are now able to provide a small number of travel bursaries to speakers coming to Münster from outside Germany. Applications will only be accepted from registered participants. More information is available on the conference site.

Conference warming

The conference warming will take place on Wednesday, 20 May, from 7pm, at Brauhaus Pinkus, Kreuzstr. 4. Pinkus brewery offers local cuisine and a selection of beers.
