Additional notes and comments for the teacher (suggestions, praise, criticism). (Note: Please write inside the box only. The teacher will receive an image of your hand-written comments.)

I think the discussions during the course were very interesting. However, I would suggest to write more interaction about such complex content as philosophy - on the hand.

I liked the use of different types of material (texts and videos). The main criticism I have is that I feel the discussions were too lengthy, not grounded enough in the material. I felt many topics covered were too philosophical for me. Often at which we debated them and these discussions, to my opinion, were lacking a more solid grounding.

I would have liked to have a discussion of Group 1's ideas. Maybe to emphasis, once their ideas can be a little nuanced at times, we could split into groups and be asked to summarize them.

The use of the reflection at the end of each lesson is not always so clear.
I will have added some more structure, maybe closer
