

Retreat 2021
Otto Creutzfeldt Center
Münster | Sept. 27th – 28th

Monday 27th – on campus talks, join in person or via Zoom

Time	Title	Presenter
13:15	Welcome Address
13:30	Heading perception in the presence of biological motion	Anna Hülemeier
14:00	Flexible use of post-saccadic feedback information	Frauke Heins
14:30	Insights in Virtual Reality Eye Tracking	Niklas Stein
15:00	Coffee Break
15:30	Periodic and aperiodic speech segments contribute to envelope tracking	Nikolas Chalas
16:00	More Alike than Different? Quantifying Abnormalities of Brain Structure and Function in Major Depressive Disorder across Nine Modalities	Nils Winter
16:30	The influence of transcranial direct current stimulation (tDCS) of the ventromedial prefrontal cortex (vmPFC) on attentional biases and reward processing	Thomas Kroker
17:00	Sports and Recreation
18:00	Barbecue

Retreat 2021
Otto Creutzfeldt Center
Münster | Sept. 27th – 28th

Tuesday 28th – Zoom talks

Time	Title	Presenter
09:00	Rich club “chronoarchitecture” forms the neural basis for the processing of hierarchical stimuli	Falko Mecklenbrauck
09:30	What happened when? Brain and behavioral responses to violated expectations about the structure and content of episodic memories	Sophie Siestrup
10:00	Break
10:30	Contribution of serotonergic receptors of the bed nucleus of the stria terminalis (BNST) to phasic and sustained fear	Margarita Hessel
11:00	Investigation of Sex Differences in Peripheral and Central Signaling During Acute Pain Using Mechanical-stimulation-induced fMRI	Hui-Fen Chen
11:30	Influence of the Balance of Excitatory and Inhibitory Neurons on Reservoir Computing Performance: Importance of Inhibition for Network Performance	Myriam de Graaf
12:00	Closing remarks

Location on Monday, September 27th:

Lecture Hall LEO 17.21

Sportpsychologie; Leonardo-Campus 17; 48149 Münster

