

Crossovers: Postcolonial studies and transcultural learning

17.4.	Prof. em. Dr. Dr. Peter Freese	"What, then, is the American, this new man?" (Crèvecoeur): National identity in a country of immigrants
8.5.	Prof. Dr. Kylie Crane	Whales, waste and wilderness: Postcolonial environmentalism
15.5.	Prof. Dr. Laurenz Volkmann	Reconsidering the issue of transcultural vs. ethnocentric uses of literature: The case of Arundhati Roy's award-winning bestseller The God of Small Things
22.5.	Prof. Dr. Paul Mecheril	The making of (non-)migrants: Integration as dispositif
5.6.	Prof. Dr. Frank Schulze-Engler	Transcultural encounters: Coming to terms with Aboriginal modernity in Australian literature and film
26.6.	Prof. Dr. Wolfgang Hallet	Novelistic narration across modes and media: The multimodal novel
3.7.	PD Dr. Susanne Reichl	Learning how to look with postcolonial picturebooks

Crossovers lecture series

Introducing the new crossovers series for inter- and transdisciplinary research - in and beyond the English Seminar, WWU Münster. This semester, the topics centre around

- disciplinary crossovers between Postcolonial Studies and Teaching English as a Foreign Language (TEFL)
- thematic crossovers referring to transcultural discourses
- intermedial crossovers across different media such as text, film, photography, and others; or between scribal, visual, and cultural literacy

Date: Tuesdays, 18-20

Place: ES131, English Seminar, Johannisstr. 12

Contact:

Teaching English as a Foreign Language
Prof. Dr. Christiane Lütge
English Seminar
WWU Münster
www.wwu.de/Anglistik/Research/Tefl

English, Postcolonial & Media Studies
Prof. Dr. Mark Stein
English Seminar
WWU Münster
www.wwu.de/ptts

