

Hostile Terrain 94 Münster – global participatory art project

Come and visit the exhibition

What?

Münster edition of UCLA's global participatory art project that draws attention to the state-sanctioned violence of the US border enforcement strategy. Also suggesting links to similar policies in Europe. Starting from a blank map, the exhibit visualizes migrant deaths by mounting 3,200 toe-tags filled in by Münster community members, incl. students & staff of our university.

Safe viewing despite Corona:

On-site: socially distant open-air viewing in the courtyard of the Bible Museum, Johannisstr. 20

Online: website complements on-site exhibition with background info: pts.wwu.de/ht94Muenster

This site also gives access to Contingent Belonging, the accompanying digital lecture series

When? 18–29 January 2021

Open to all; free entry #ht94Muenster

