

UNIVERSITÄT
KOBLENZ · LANDAU

WWU

NORMATIVITY BEYOND THE WEST: AFRICAN AND ARABO-ISLAMIC PERSPECTIVES ON JUSTICE

DFG-Project „Diversity, Power, and Justice: Transcultural Perspectives“
by Prof. Ina Kerner and Prof. Franziska Dübgen

Programme

December 05th, 2019

6 pm c.t. Introductory Key Note:

Prof. Thaddeus Metz: How to Do Global Ethics, with Illustrations from African and Islamic Justice

December 06th, 2019: All-Day Symposium

Part 1: African Perspectives

9:00 am	Prof. Ina Kerner and Prof. Franziska Dübgen	Welcome and Introduction
9:15 am	Victor Nweke	Conceptualizing the Ubuntu Approach to Justice Theory in a Complex World: Its Significance and Challenges
10:00 am	Coffee break

10:15 am	Dr. Michael Onyebuchi Eze	Decolonizing Justice: Transitional Justice and the Legitimation of Political Change
11:00 am	PD Dr. Anke Graness	"May Food Be a Commodity?" – Radical Thinking in African Philosophy
11:45 am	Commentary by Dr. Christiana Idika and Discussion
12:30 pm	Lunch

Part 2: Arabo-Islamic Perspectives

13:30 pm	Kaouther Karoui	The Renewal of the Classical Islamic Thought: Rational Theories of Justice. A Commentary on the Work of Fatima Mernissi and Mohammed Arkoun
14:15 pm	Dr. Ursula Günther	Mohammed Arkoun's Quest for a Radical Re-Reading of Islamic Tradition
15:00 pm	Coffee break
15:15 pm	Prof. Soumaya Mestiri	Sirin Adlbi's Islamic Decolonial Feminism. A Critical Reading
16:00 pm	Commentaries by PD Dr. Steffi Hobuss, Dr. Heiner Michel, and Dr. Mohamed Turki as well as Discussion

5 pm s.t. Concluding Key Note

Prof. Paulin Hountondji: Universality: A Transcultural Challenge

The symposium and the key notes will take place in Münster, Schlossplatz 5, Festsaal.

Please register by November 28th:
gjeromin@uni-muenster.de