

Day 1

March 22, 2023

Time

Event

Venue

18:00

Welcome get-together

Hotel Galactica

Time	Room ES 131	Room ES 226	Room ES 227
8:45-9:15	Registration (Room ES 130)
9:15-9:30	Welcome speech
9:30-10:30	Keynote-I (Room ES131) Prof. Dr. John Gray (University College London) Representation and erasure in ELT materials – the strange case of queer absence
10:30-11:00	Coffee break (Room ES 130)
	Gender & Language	Political and legal discourse	Media context
11:00-11:30	Sahar Shirali A cultural-linguistic look at gender stereotypes in Persian		Zunaira Aslam Critical discourse analysis of “The Last Airbender”: A portrayal of cultural genocide in Avatar
11:30-12:00	Tamar Guchua Gender-related aspects in speech events: A case of Georgian	Imane Elimadi A comparative analysis of two political discourses in Morocco	Oleksandra Kuzmenko The most infamous fictional factions: What lies beneath the name?

Time	Room ES 131	Room ES 226	Room ES 227
12:00-12:30	Sarah Heinemann A woman, a word of power – female use of words and their rhetorical-communicative representation in science and society	Serena Coschignano Antonio Bianco Mentre ('while') as a manipulative linguistic device: a perceptual study of antagonism construction in Italian political tweets on migrations	Rachelle Edwards "Reservation Dogs": A linguistic analysis
12:30-14:00	Lunch Break
14:00-14:30	Laura Maria Duve On the role of linguists in the public debate on gender-inclusive language in Germany	Yousuf Aboamer Emad Abdul-Latif How "others" are "othered" in the discourse of migration? AFD statements as a case study	Gu Jiapei & Janet Ho Critical discourse analysis of the discursive representations of blackness on Chinese social media
14:30-15:00	Samira Ochs Arztgatte vs. Arztgattin: Gender asymmetries in German compounds	Joy Steigler-Herms Establishing authority in court decisions: The persuasive potential of citing	Zhi Li The power of different languages and body images in Chinese and German cosmetics advertising

Time	Room ES 131	Room ES 226	Room ES 227
15:00-15:30	Anna Maria Leitz Is a truck driver more likely to be named Jochen or Petra? – An experimental psycholinguistic study about the generic masculine and gender-related mental representations of job titles in German	Mohamed Benhima The use of archaic terms by sworn translators in legal translation from Arabic into English in Morocco	Sharmilee Kiffer A critical stylistic analysis of textual meanings of 'girl' in social media campaigns in 2014
15:30-16:00	Renée Pera-Ros Authority, legitimacy and agency in the debate for Catalan gender-neutral language		Cleo Hopkin-King "If men aren't entitled to sex then women aren't entitled to safety": Entitlement, hegemonic masculinity, and rape apology in incel sex talk
16:00-16:30	Coffee break (Room ES130)
16:30-17:30	Keynote-II "over Zoom" Prof. Emerita Dr. Theodossia-Soula Pavlidou (The Aristotle University of Thessaloniki) Reflections on language-gender-sexism
18:00	City tour

Time	Room ES 131	Room ES 226
9:15-9:30	Announcements
9:30-10:30	Keynote-III (Room ES131) Prof. Dr. habil. Galina Putjata, (Goethe University Frankfurt) “Your children have to learn German first, and it must be proper German” Language related notions of normality in educational contexts. Challenges in current theoretical and methodological discourse on research in language and power
10:30-11:00	Coffee break (Room ES130)
	Education, language policy & preservation	Identity and language of minority groups
11:00-11:30	Yang Yue Epistemic authority management in teacher-student interaction in Chinese academic scenarios	Ewan Hannaford Symptoms, signs, and stigma: Mediating and dividing illness Identity across the press and public
11:30-12:00	Ina-Maria Maahs Teachers’ perspectives on their learners: Identification of neocolonialistic power relationships in German integration courses	Anila Nosheen Maternal misogyny: Pakistani patriarchal kinship

Time	Room ES 131	Room ES 226
12:00-12:30		Friedrich Markewitz “Er ist doch ohne Übertreibung die Personifikation des Kategorischen Imperativs”: Possibilities and limits of inner-discursive critique on the basis of selected textual communicates of the Litzmannstadt ghetto
12:30-14:00	Lunch break
14:00-14:30	Maria Antón i Álvarez de Cienfuegos Heritage language vitality and educative linguistic policies in Northern Catalonia	Busra Can Standard accented Turkish speakers' perception of Kurdish accented speakers: The factors behind the evaluations
14:30-15:00	Pascal Hohaus Reflecting on the power of native speaker norms in language teaching - evidence from an undergraduate seminar for prospective teachers of English	Samantha Jackson More than words: Non-Canadian English accents and hiring decisions in Toronto

Time	Room ES 131	Room ES 226
15:00-15:30	Usha Udaar Vernacular languages and access to education: Case study of Haryanvi languages	Stefano Presutti Indexicality of letter V for national identity power in thelitalian capital's semiotic landscape.
15:30-16:00	Coffee break (Room ES130)
16:00-16:30	Mara Leiting Marthe Wierenga Jakarta dirty, and William V heroic?: Intersectional representations of Dutch-Indonesian (neo)colonial discourse in Dutch school textbooks
16:30-17:00	Marc Alexander Ewan Hannaford Linguistic variation and national collections	Hazhar Asadpour Kurdish as a local language and its underestimated communicative value in theories of linguistic justice
17:00-17:30	Conference Closing
18:00	Dinner : Mocca d'or	