

Language Requirements

(according to attachment B of the doctoral study regulations of the Faculties of History/Philosophy and Philology as well as the Faculty of Psychology and Sports Science)

1. General Linguistics
 - Functional knowledge in English
 - Functional knowledge in two further foreign languages (knowledge of a non-Indo-European language is particularly desirable)
2. Language Teaching
 - Functional knowledge in English
 - Functional knowledge in another foreign language
 - In case of a dissertation not written in German: Functional knowledge of German
3. Deutsche Philologie
 - Knowledge in two foreign languages (level B2 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages; One of the languages may be Latin or Greek)
 - Students who do not speak German as a native language has to prove exceptional knowledge (level C1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages)
4. Englische Philologie
 - Functional knowledge in to forein languages other than English
5. Romanische Philologie (Schwerpunkt Französisch)
 - Knowledge in Latin (at least to the extent of 20 ECTS from consecutive Latin courses at WWU, or equivalent courses at other universities, or at least three years of Latin classes in Middel- and High School)
 - Functional knowledge in one further Romanic language as well as English
6. Romanische Philologie (Schwerpunkt Italienisch)
 - Knowledge in Latin (at least to the extent of 20 ECTS from consecutive Latin courses at WWU, or equivalent courses at other universities, or at least three years of Latin classes in Middel- and High School)
 - Functional knowledge in one further Romanic language as well as English
7. Romanische Philologie (Schwerpunkt Spanisch)
 - Knowledge in Latin (at least to the extent of 20 ECTS from consecutive Latin courses at WWU, or equivalent courses at other universities, or at least three years of Latin classes in Middel- and High School)

- Functional knowledge in one further Romanic language as well as English

8. Niederländische Philologie

- Functional knowledge in one foreign language other than Dutch

9. Psychology

- none

02/26/2021 – Data without guarantee. Official information can be found in the doctoral study regulations of the faculties.