

Workshop

"The US-American Family in the Sixties and Seventies: Family Values and Gender Roles"

Emmy-Noether-Nachwuchsgruppe

“Familienwerte im gesellschaftlichen Wandel.
Die US-amerikanische Familie im 20. Jahrhundert“

Schedule

Tuesday, December 1, 2009:

Rosenstraße 9, Raum 360.

14.00-15.30: Presentations

Welcome, Opening remarks.

Isabel Heinemann, Münster: Family Values and Social Change: The US-American Family in the 20th Century.

Felix Krämer, Münster: “We're Ready to Lead!” Centering Hegemonic Masculinity and Belief in the Course of the 1970s.

Johanna Brumberg, Göttingen: “Haven in a Heartless World”: Baby Boomers and the Discourse on the Crisis of the American Family in the 1970s and 1980s.

15.30: Coffee Break

16.00-17.30: Discussion

Comment: Natasha Zaretsky.

Discussion.

18.00-20.00: Lecture and Discussion

Fürstenberghaus, F 8

Natasha Zaretsky, Southern Illinois University Carbondale: The American Family, Feminism, and Economic Transformation in the 1970s.

20.00: Dinner

Wednesday, December 2, 2009:

Rosenstraße 9, Raum 360.

9.00-12.00: PhD Projects - Detailed Discussion

Anne Overbeck, Münster: “Mistress of Her Cabin” or “Welfare Queen”? The Discourse on African-American Single Mothers in the 20th Century.

Claudia Roesch: Chicano Families in American Public Discourse, 1910-1980.

12.00: Lunch

14.00: End of the Workshop.

Kontakt:

Prof. Dr. Isabel Heinemann

Emmy-Noether-Nachwuchsgruppe
“Familienwerte im gesellschaftlichen Wandel.
Die US-amerikanische Familie im 20. Jahrhundert.“

Juniorprofessur für Neuere
und Neueste Geschichte

Westf. Wilhelms-Universität
Rosenstraße 9
48143 Münster

Tel.: 0049-251-832-5458

Fax: 0049-251-832-5457

isabel.heinemann@uni-muenster.de