

"Active Ageing Lab" is looking for a student assistant (4-8 hours) and/or intern

The Department of Movement Science at the Institute of Sport Science is looking for a student assistant and/or intern for exciting project work in the field of "Active Ageing" as soon as possible.

We offer you a collaboration in our international projects, where you will act as a contact person for our project partners, participate in project meetings in the EU (online and on-site) and prepare and follow up on them.

Our expectations:

- Enrollment in a degree program is required.
- Good written and spoken German and English skills are required.
- Class B driver's license is desirable.
- High organizational skills, ability to work in a team and independent working style are an advantage.

We offer:

- Work organization as a mix of work at the institute and from the home office.
- Insight into our exciting project work, including scientific and practical suggestions for your studies and beyond.

The University of Münster is committed to equal opportunities and diversity. We welcome all applications regardless of gender, nationality, ethnic or social origin, religion, disability, age, sexual orientation, or identity. Family-friendly working conditions are a matter of course for us. The University of Münster is committed to gender equality and strives to increase the proportion of women in research and teaching. Applications from women are therefore expressly encouraged; women with equal aptitude, qualifications and professional performance will be given preferential consideration, unless reasons relating to the person of a competitor prevail.

Have we piqued your interest?

Then we look forward to receiving your digital application by 15.03.2024 to the following e-mail address: ellen.bentlage@uni-muenster.de.

Please tell us in which areas you have already taken on organizational responsibility. A CV and your study status (course of study, number of semesters) are sufficient as attachments.

We are open to any questions.
