Book(s) for the beginners' group(s)

You can also buy the book at #Thalia and/or #Poertgen&Herder, both in the city centre (or any other book store).

Please consider...

Etiquette for classes and excursions:

- Please be on time.

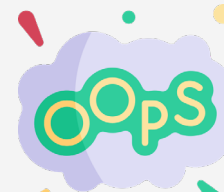

- Do stay at home when you are feeling sick and let your teacher know.

- You can get a certificate of attendance if you will not have missed more than 2 days.

- Feel free to (try and) talk without fear!

- Mistakes are both students' and teachers' best friends when – in our context – it comes to activating a successful learning process!

- Have fun and enjoy the classes!

What happens after the German Intensive Courses?

- Everyone has to take the official C-test online (main exception: courses for absolute beginners and Arabic, Chinese, Japanese, Polish and Turkish language courses).
- Before you take the C-test, you have to register on our website with your Münster university e-mail address and password → welcome letter international office!
- The instructions can be found in a PDF document on our homepage.
- You can choose any course you would like to attend and apply for a place.

Questions etc.

- For questions please contact the respective language coordinator!
- ENJOY YOUR SEMESTER!

Der Botanische Garten.

Der Aasee.

Are there any (more) questions at this point?

Der Kiepenkerl.

Vielen Dank und bis bald!

Der Dom.
