

Venues

- Main venue: Fürstenberghaus ("F-Haus", Room F.3), Domplatz 20-22, Münster
- Town Hall, Prinzipalmarkt 10, Münster
- online on Zoom

Organisers

HOUSE project team and partners: Wiesława Duży, Anja Heinz, Angelika Lampen, Aleksander Łupienko, Grzegorz Myrda, Michał Słomski, Katarzyna Słomska-Przech, Daniel Stracke

Financing

Historical Ontology of Urban Space project is financed by the National Agency for Academic Exchange under the International Academic Partnerships program (project number PPI / APM / 2019/1/00053 / U / 00001).

Contact

For any further details, please contact Wiesława Duży by email: urbanonto@ihpan.edu.pl

Project website

urbanonto.ihpan.edu.pl

Historical Ontology of Urban Space

Domain ontologies and beyond

Programme of the final conference

September 7-9, 2022

13:00-14:00
Reception at the Town Hall
Introduction and welcome

September 7, 2022 (Wednesday): Fürstenberghaus, Room F.3

14:30-16:00 Historic Towns Atlases – perspectives and approaches

- Melanie Bering-Müller, Niklas Alt (in person), Towards an open and FAIR Historical Town Atlas: the example of Fulda
- Sarah Gearty, Rachel Murphy (online), Towards a controlled vocabulary: the Irish Historic Towns Atlas Project and its topographical information
- Radosław Golba, Agnieszka Pilarska (online), Experiences of the Toruń Team in the implementation of HTA on the example of the Toruń atlas

16:00-16:30
Coffee break

16:30-18:30 Discussion: Ontologies and beyond

Francesco Beretta (online), Wiesława Duży (in person), Øyvind Eide (in person), Paweł Garbacz (in person), Francis Harvey (in person), Humphrey Southall (in person), Bogumił Szady (in person), Georg Vogeler (online)

19:30
Dinner

#urbanonto

HOUSE

September 8, 2022 (Thursday): Fürstenberghaus, Room F.3

9:00-10:30 Key-note lecture (online)

Eero Hyvönen, How to create a national cross-domain ontology and linked data infrastructure and use it on the Semantic Web

10:30-11:00
Coffee break

11:00-12:30 Domain ontologies and beyond

■ Paula Aucott (online), The use of ontologies and controlled vocabularies in the Vision of Britain system

■ Katarzyna Słomska-Przech (in person), Ontology as a bridge – examples of work with the urbanonto ontology and old town plans

12:30-14:00
Lunch

14:00-15:30 Urban space as a multifaceted field of research

■ Keith Lilley (online), Materiality of urban spaces. Historic built-forms as physical proxies of past urban planning practices

■ Sebastian Schröder (in person), Village or town? The Prussian Akzisestädte in Westfalia during the 18th century

■ Tabitha Redepenning (in person), Narrating Szczecin. Creation of urban authenticity through touristic city trails

15:30-16:00
Coffee break

16:00-17:30 Book manuscript presentation

19:00
Dinner

POLISH NATIONAL AGENCY FOR ACADEMIC EXCHANGE

September 9, 2022 (Friday): Fürstenberghaus, Room F.3

9:00-10:00 HOUSE project Scientific Board Meeting

10:00-11:00 Group discussion with all invited guests, coffee and tea: plans for future

11:00-11:30 HOUSE project summary

11:30-13:30
Sightseeing

13:30
Lunch

#urbanonto